Dasari Ravi Kumar

Awarded Singapore Gold National Excellent Service award

Hyderabad, August'05: Dasari Ravi Kumar, a MBA Graduate from a prestigious U.K University, is currently working in Emerio Corporation as a Chief Quality Officer and Assistant Vice President – Corporate Planning. His principal responsibilities include identifying, planning, achieving and maintaining the quality accreditations for the Emerio group. In this capacity he steered three ISO 9001:2000 certifications for the Emerio group of companies.

Emerio Corporation is a Singapore based Global IT outsourcing services Company with delivery options in Singapore, Malaysia, China, India, Indonesia and Eastern Europe. Apart from earning several awards, Emerio is recognized at the national level for delivering outstanding IT outsourcing services.

Mr. Ravi has had a chequered career in IT, spanning 10 over years of which 7 years were spent in Singapore. He started his career in IT as Software engineer and held various positions that include Senior Software Engineer, Project Leader, Project manager and Senior Manager before he moved into the management. In his tenure at the Project Management Office he had successfully delivered 35 over projects of various dimensions and dynamics "on time, on spec, on-budget and to the satisfaction of the stakeholders". One of the Projects delivered, under his supervision, to a Voluntary organization also received acknowledgment at the National Level. He had completed various technical certifications and is a strong believer of "Life long Learning" principle which motivated him to complete his master's degree in general management while working on projects with stringent dead lines.

For the last 2 years Ravi and his team are the winners of Singapore National Excellent Service awards given by Spring Singapore. These awards are given to those individuals who had delivered outstanding service to customers. On the personal front he won Gold and Star National Excellent Service awards in 2003 & 2004 respectively.

Emerio enjoys the pride of being the Singapore's first IT Services Company to receive the National Excellent Service awards given by Spring Singapore and has secured a place in Singapore book of records.

SPRING Singapore is a statutory body responsible for Standards, Productivity and Innovation in Singapore.

Mr. Ravi also has the honour of being the first IT Professional of Project Management cadre in Singapore to receive the National Excellent Service award. This honour has secured him a place in Singapore Book of Records. Apart from earning the honour at the individual level, Ravi's untiring efforts, passion and leadership capabilities have contributed towards his company "Emerio" getting these National awards as well as an entry in the Singapore Book of Records.

Ravi dedicates this award to his father and role model late Dr. Dasari. Dhanikudu, mother Mrs. Sarojini, wife Mrs. Tejaswini, guru Mr. Harish Nim and to his other family members. Ravi has published several white papers on a wide range of topics from technology to management which were published in various portals and online magazines. These include: Project Portfolio Management, Lean Software Development, Web Services, Business Process Outsourcing, Employee Transformation & Change Management. He also presented a paper on "Balanced Scorecard" in Singapore's first Software Engineering Conference.
